

The Federal Bar Association and Oregon State Bar Civil Rights Section
Present

These Times They are a Changin' –
Future Impacts of the 2013 US Supreme Court
Session on Marriage Equality, Search and Seizure,
Voting Rights, and Affirmative Action

Friday, November 15, 2013
Mark O. Hatfield United States Courthouse*
Jury Assembly Room, 2nd Floor
1000 SW Third Avenue
Portland, Oregon

Generously sponsored by Barran Liebman LLP; Davis Wright Tremaine LLP;
Kell, Alterman & Runstein; Stoel Rives LLP; and Tonkon Torp

Do you represent plaintiffs or defend public employers in Section 1983 litigation? Are you interested in learning more about Section 1983 litigation?

This seminar offers a careful look at where the law is heading in light of the highly dynamic 2012-2013 Supreme Court term. Our panels and speakers will address some of the most pressing issues in civil rights in Oregon. Our Affirmative Action panel will discuss implementation of affirmative action policies in the Oregon university system. Magistrate Judge Coffin and Courtney Angeli will address the latest trends in employment and Title VII litigation. Some of Portland's foremost scholars on LGBTQ and family law issues, including Judge Beth Allen, will address the changes implemented by the Court's DOMA decision. Federal Public Defender Lisa Hay will address advancements in the law surrounding canine searches and blood collection at a DUI stop. Finally, Secretary of State Kate Brown will present a historical perspective on voting in Oregon and Marcia Johnson-Blanco, with the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights, Voting Rights Project, will discuss the state of voting rights on a national level.

If your practice includes Section 1983 litigation, you won't want to miss this CLE.

State or Federally issued Photo Identification is required for entry into the Courthouse

Schedule of Topics and Speakers

9:00 a.m. – 9:15 a.m.	Introduction	Oregon Chapter FBA President Jolie Russo
9:15 a.m. – 10:45 a.m.	Affirmative (In)Action: Impacts of Fischer v. University of Texas in Oregon	Lawyer/Moderator – Diane Sykes Prof. Shelaswau Crier – Professor – Professional Responsibility & Legislative Process Prof. Gil Carrasco Prof. Jim Rawlins
10:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.	Supervisor authority and “but for” causation under Title VII: are employees or employers better protected?	Judge Thomas Coffin Courtney Angeli – Buchanan Angeli Altschul & Sullivan LLP
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 p.m. – 2:15 p.m.	The end of DOMA: What are the practical effects of Windsor v. United States in Oregon?	Judge Beth Allen Mark Johnson Roberts – Gevurtz Menashe Gosia Fonberg – Baas Law
2:15 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.	Contours of the Fourth Amendment; K-9 Searches, DNA swabs, and speaking up for the right to remain silent	Lisa Hay – Federal Public Defender’s Office
3:00 p.m. – 3:15 p.m.	Break
3:15 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.	Voting rights or wrongs: Striking down Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act	Secretary of State Kate Brown – History of voting in Oregon Marcia Johnson-Blanco – Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Voting Rights Project

Registration Opens: October 1, 2013.

To Register: Please visit the FBA website: FBA website <http://www.oregonfba.org/>

Cost: $125 for regular admission. Sliding scale pricing is available. Lunch will be provided. Please bring a government-issued photo ID and allow 15 minutes to clear security. Please see the FBA website for further details.

Questions? Contact Jolie Russo at jolie_russo@ord.uscourts.gov or 503 326-8252

CLE Credits: Request for 6 CLE credits is pending.